

BK Medical, now a part of GE HealthCare, is committed to providing innovative active imaging solutions that help surgeons confirm or update operative plans, make informed clinical decisions, and achieve organ-sparing procedures. Driven by our mission to change the standard of care through visual guidance, BK technology provides high-resolution images and data-driven insights when it matters the most.